CASE CALLED FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE- REVOCATION.

Mr. Matos de Juan addressed the Court defendant was not contesting the allegations contained in the motion filed by Probation.

The Court found there is probable cause as to defendant violating his probation and referred the matter to Chief Judge Fuste for final revocation hearing.

AFPD Matos asked the Court if there were any conditions of release which could be imposed as defendant's only transgression had been driving under the influence and that defendant did not pose any risk of flight nor danger to the community.

The Court advised AFPD Matos to file the corresponding motion addressed to Chief Judge Fuste.
